

How to get to LOPEC

The Messe München trade-fair center in the heart of Europe has an outstanding transportation infrastructure. Whether you are traveling by plane, train or automobile, we have put together some extensive information and research tools to help you plan your trip.

Contact

LOPEC—Visitor hotline

Tel. +49 89 949-11618

E-mail lopec.visitor@messe-muenchen.de

By plane

The second-largest airport in Germany guarantees you excellent continental and intercontinental connections.

- Lufthansa special
- Taxis with fixed fares
- Public transport

By car

The trade-fair center is located directly on the A 94 motorway in eastern Munich. A dynamic traffic guidance system will guide you to LOPEC.

➤ Getting to LOPEC by car

By train

Taking the train to Munich is convenient and environmentally friendly! It takes about 20 minutes to get from the Central Station to the trade-fair center.

➤ Getting there by train

→ Deutsche Bahn special offer

With public transportation

The U2 subway will take you directly to the “Messestadt West” subway station.

➤ Getting there with public transportation